

STAND UP AND RISE (A. Gariazzo)

Stand up and rise
Please could you open your eyes
Don't be afraid of their lies
Go on and pick up the cry

Hold on and be strong
I don't allow all their guns
Call it peace Call it Love
I just don't move from above

Raise your voice and talk clear
Don't be restrained from your fear
Is it worth to believe in your rights
So stand up and rise

Once again
Is it worth to believe in our rights
We shall learn to rise
